Message from Vice Commodore - Terry Edgell

Well the summer has kicked off with a great opening weekend.

I want to thank the other officers on the great job they did and all the members that stepped up to make it such a big success.

There are even plans to improve on that for next year.

Most people know we finally got the new stove in the kitchen; what a beauty.

If anybody is still looking for work hours there is still lots to do. Just contact the officers.

Enjoy the rest of the summer with safe boating!

Message from Rear Commodore - Robert Burke

I am trying to find a good date to work on the approach for A pier. The repairs are much needed so please keep an eye out for upcoming emails regarding a work party.

Congratulations to THE Fleet Captain of the Year, Kyle Gubernat. We had a great time watching you Crush the competition in the Fleet Captain's contest.

Please come out to support Princess Erika for her fundraiser this coming weekend. It should be a great time!

Message from Fleet Captain - Kyle Gubernat

Well here we are already into July.

I hope everyone's boating season thus far has been enjoyable and relaxing.

There are a few tentative cruises on the books in the coming months, but I'm always looking for any insight from any member who has a desire to put together other destination cruises.

We have Princess Erika's fundraiser coming up on July 8th. If you know of anyone wanting to attend and needing a slip, please have them reach out to me via phone or email. Dockage will be complimentary for the weekend, and I will be covering the electric fee.

If you haven't already, and plan to attend Labor Day weekend at Kent Island Yacht Club, please make your reservations on Dockwa asap. When you make your reservations please specify Red Eye YC in the notes section to get the discounted rate.

Thank you to all the members who have been keeping the club moving forward in a positive way. We are getting a lot of positive feedback about Red Eye from our visiting guests.

I look forward to seeing everyone at the club as well as on the water.

You stay classy REYC.
