Message from Commodore Kim Ryan

Ball season is just about over. It has been an honor to represent REYC at our sister club balls. Now that March is here, I hope mother nature does not repeat last year and rain until almost June. We deserve an early spring this year.

Please join me in greeting the incoming land cruises: North Point YC 3/2 @ 3pm; Baltimore YC 3/9 @ 10:30am; and Crescent YC 3/30 @ 2:50pm.

I look forward to enjoying upcoming events with everyone - REYC Bull & Oyster Roast 3/16 and our Spring Fling 5/4. Both are club events so RSVP early.

Thank you. Kim

We have finally started to see some decent weather days! That being said, I plan on having a spring cleaning work party in the near future to get the clubhouse in good shape. If people can help clean or in any way help Erni with all these events coming up, please contact someone about doing so. Also if you see anything around the club that needs to be fixed or replaced, please either do it or let me know about it so I can add it to the list. Thanks

Message from F/C Terry Edgell

With the winter hopefully 2/3 over. And spring just around the corner. With a full Schedule of events at the club and the upcoming Land cruises coming to our club, we hope to see everyone joining in with the fellowship. I am busy working on some fun for coming boating season . Think spring.

F/C P/C Terry Edgell

Message from Princess Katie Gaff

Hello to my Yacht Club family!

I have been very busy attending Commodore Balls every Saturday and have enjoyed representing Red Eye Yacht Club. It has been a lot of fun bonding with my fellow Princesses and the Queen. Meeting new Yacht Club people every weekend has also been a delight. Sadly, the Balls are almost over. Yacht Clubs of Maryland's Commodore Day Out Luncheon on Sunday, March 31 will be the last event of the season. However, soon the Openings will be starting along with Boating Season. I am looking forward to the warmer weather and hopefully not as much rain. I have already been asked to play Taps at some of the Yacht Club Openings. This is a great honor and I ecstatic to provide this service. My family and I are hoping to be at the majority of the Openings by boat this season and would love the weather to cooperate.

New Members
Welcome!

As most of you are aware, my charity that I am supporting this year is The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Maryland located in Baltimore City. This foundation is one that I have been involved with for the past several years. Every year the big fundraiser for the House is the Red Shoe Shuffle which is a 5K walk/run from the old House, around Oriole Park at Camden Yards, to the newly built Ronald McDonald House in downtown Baltimore. This event is a lot of fun and all proceeds benefit the Ronald McDonald House. I have a team called "The Royal Clowns" and I would love for you to join me on Sunday, April 7. You can register at www.firstgiving.com/team/382851. If you are not comfortable in participating, maybe you would like to donate to this great charity and you can do so by using the same link. In addition to participating in the 5K walk/run, I am also collecting can tabs that are recycled and the money is used for the House's Shuttle service. To date, I have been able to donate over 150 lbs of can tabs.

I cannot wait for Boating Season to get here and I hope to see you on the Creek.
